

Canton of Zurich

Government Council 2021/2022

There are 1.55 million of us living in the Canton of Zurich. Every day we work hard for our families, in our jobs and in our communities. We come up with ideas, celebrate successes and deal with disappointments. We enjoy life, and in times not dominated by coronavirus, we enjoy plenty of freedom as well. Living in a modern, open and diverse society is fascinating – and challenging. No two days are the same. Things develop at incredible speed. Mobility, digitalisation, diversity of cultures, languages and religions transform our familiar environment. So I invite you to join us in making this change happen together! Let's work for a society where people in all walks of life can find a place and feel they belong. Everyone's involvement, and our willingness to help shape the social and economic progress of our canton, are immensely valuable. This engagement is the backbone of democracy. In recognition of this, the Government Council has decided to actively encourage everyone to get involved. We, the seven Government Councillors and the Chancellor, want all 1.55 million people in Canton Zurich, including you, to feel they belong and are part of our community.

Jacqueline Fehr

President of the Government Council of the Canton of Zurich

The Government Council is the supreme executive authority in the canton. Its seven full-time members are elected by popular majority vote every four years. The Government Council's duties include:

- Drafting laws, amendments to the constitution and legislation and spending bills for approval by the cantonal parliament or the electorate
- Managing a cantonal administration with about 33,000 staff
- Determining the interim and long-term goals of government policies
- Supervising the various authorities
- Preparing the budget
- Representing the canton within Switzerland with respect to the Confederation and other cantons
- Negotiating international and intercantonal agreements
- Ruling on administrative appeals
- Recruiting top-level administrative staff

Department for Economic Affairs

The Department for Economic Affairs promotes and develops the Canton of Zurich as an attractive place to live, work and do business. It's committed to creating a strong location with a good framework for enterprises and the people who work for them. That includes making sure those looking for a job are rapidly and permanently integrated in the workplace. Directly benefiting people in the Canton of Zurich, the Department for Economic Affairs manages the development of transport. It's in charge of strategic planning for the road, rail and water transport system, focusing on key topics such as digitalisation, automation, decarbonisation and climate protection. The department works to ensure good international air connections and safeguards the interests of the public in matters of noise prevention. This way it does a great deal to maintain the outstanding standard of living in the canton and ensure that people feel well here.

Building Department

The Building Department is as diverse as the Canton of Zurich itself, both mirroring and shaping this very special living environment. Among the department's responsibilities are planning spaces to ensure that, despite such a dense population, there's room for all the things that make the quality of life in our canton what it is: living, working and recreation. This includes a commitment to intact natural landscapes, clean air and water, and to agriculture and forestry. The Building Department is also responsible for infrastructure: constructing roads, schools and hospitals. Its job is to preserve this precious built environment – and the cultural legacy of our forebears – for the generations to come.

From large groups to SMEs: The canton of Zurich has the strongest economy in Switzerland, with every fifth franc in the country generated here.

From star sopranos to folk sessions: With more than 100 professionally managed arts establishments, there's a venue for every art and culture.

From football to climbing: The canton has 1,700 sports facilities where 2,400 clubs offer 110 different sports.

A panoramic view of a Swiss valley. In the foreground, there are green fields and a small town with red-roofed houses. The middle ground shows rolling hills and more greenery. In the background, there are mountains and a large body of water, possibly a lake or a wide river. The sky is blue with some light clouds and a faint rainbow arc. The overall scene is peaceful and scenic.

From foresters to road workers: The most populous canton in Switzerland is around one-third covered by trees and has a network of nearly 1,500 km of cantonal roads.

From trams to cable cars: every day more than a million passengers use the public transport network operated by the Zurich Transport Authority (ZVV).

From kindergarten to university: Every day around 300,000 children, young people and adults attend an educational institution and some 50,000 study at a university or university of applied sciences.

From cutting-edge medicine to nursing care: Around 50 hospitals and clinics, 260 old people's and nursing homes as well as 3,500 independent physicians work with other professionals and institutions to provide good health care.
