

Professionals for animal experiments: Approval of education done abroad in particular cases (person conducting animal experiment)

Article 134 Para. 1 and Article 197 Animal Welfare Ordinance of April 23th 2008

Documents required

- Copy of the certificate of attendance
- Copy of the program

Note:

The applicant will be acknowledged as involved person once all missing education parts including the part on Swiss animal welfare legislation (parts of module 1 or 20 and/or EGA) have been completed only.

Content evaluation

Title and date of the education: _____

Animal species (please, fill in one form per species):

- rodents (mice, rats)
- rabbit
- pig
- ruminants
- bird
- zebra fish
- xenopus
- other (please, specify): _____

Was this education accredited by the FELASA? Yes → Table A + signature
 No → Table B + signature

A) FELASA accredited education (FELASA ID: _____)

Content by EU-Module		Attended according to certificate/ program	Validation (For VETA use only)
Core Modules	1
	2
	3.1
	4
	5
	6.1
Function Modules	3.2
	6.2
	7
Additional Task Specific Modules	8
	20
	21
Total duration in hours and minutes (hh:mm)	Theoretical part	:
	Practical part	:

Veterinärämtesamt

Waltersbachstrasse 5, 8090 Zürich

Telefon 043 259 41 41, kanzlei@veta.zh.ch, www.zh.ch/tierversuch

Ausgabedatum 31.01.2024

Kanton Zürich
Gesundheitsdirektion
2/3

B) Education that has not been accredited by the FELASA

Content of theoretical part (Art. 24 Animal Welfare Training Ordinance)	Title according to the program	Duration (hh:mm)	Validation (For VETA use only)
Animal welfare legislation and regulations	-	-	-
Ethic and animal's dignity		:
Physiology (structure and function of the animal)		:
Normal behaviour and needs of animals, signs of fear, stress and suffering		:
Breeding methods, the most important laboratory animal strains and genetic standardization		:
Method of producing genetically modified animals and their characterization		:
Rearing		:
Health monitoring and the most important laboratory animal diseases		:
Hygiene (enclosures and rooms, material, persons, preventions of infectious diseases)		:
Barrier systems (pathogen-free and gnotobiotic animals)		:
Responsibility, obligations and competencies of persons caring for animals		:
Careful handling of laboratory animals		:
Supervision and care, in particular of laboratory animals that are sick or have undergone surgical operations		:
Feeding, especially of laboratory animals that are sick or have undergone surgical operations		:
Housing requirements and design of a housing environment that allows for species-specific behaviour		:
Behavioural deviations suggesting signs of illness, pain, agitation and fear		:

Veterinärämtesamt

Waltersbachstrasse 5, 8090 Zürich

Telefon 043 259 41 41, kanzlei@veta.zh.ch, www.zh.ch/tierversuch

Ausgabedatum 31.01.2024

Kanton Zürich
Gesundheitsdirektion
3/3

Careful transport of laboratory animals		:
Careful methods of anaesthesia and verification of their efficacy		:
Proper analgesia		:
Proper euthanasia		:
3R principles and their practical application		:
Total duration of the theoretical part		:

Content of practical part (Art. 25 Animal Welfare Training Ordinance)	Title according to the program	Duration (hh:mm)	Validation (For VETA use only)
Careful handling of laboratory animals		:
Behavioural observations		:
Weight and gender determination		:
Marking of laboratory animals		:
Blood sampling		:
Administration of substances, collection of urine and faecal samples		:
Hygienic work		:
Stages of general anaesthesia and their monitoring		:
Administration of analgesics and verification of analgesia		:
Total duration of the practical part		:

Applicant

Name: _____

Institute/Address: _____

Name of responsible resource manager: _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____